No investment style can guarantee any particular return, nor is one style of investing appropriate for all investors. We encourage you to discuss the appropriateness of an investment in the Greenspring Income Opportunities Fund with your financial adviser. Before investing, you should read the Greenspring Income Opportunities Fund's prospectus, for important information about the Fund including investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses.

The Fund invests in debt securities which are subject to credit, interest rate, call or prepayment, liquidity and extension risks. Investments in debt securities that are rated below investment grade present a greater risk of loss to principal and interest than higher-rated securities.
